Foreword

The door to the past is closed forever. Looking through the keyhole, we strain our eyes for one last glimpse of high school life. We see the symbols of our past activities; the classes we attended, the clubs we joined, the sports we played, the parties we gave. And though our minds are filled with these unforgettable years, we turn and see a door that is yet to be opened--a door to which we hold the shiny, new keys. This door opens for us a whole new world, a vast world whose boundaries are limited only by our own aspirations. Our years at Jamestown School have furnished us with the key to this--the door to the future.

The

Echo

1957

Jamestown High School
Jamestown, North Carolina

The 1957 edition of the "Echo" is dedicated to an outstanding member of the faculty who has worked untiringly to open new doors for the students of Jamestown. Whether teaching in a classroom, giving advice to the Student Council, or arousing school spirit in a pep rally, he has continually exhibited an exceptional interest in student activities. On behalf of the entire student body, the senior class dedicates this annual to Mr. Jesse Vuncannon.

Although his schedule is crowded, Mr. Vuncannon is never too busy to lend a helping hand to students or faculty members.
